Our New Books Selection

The paperback edition of The Haunted Wood is now available at £12.99

'One of the best surveys of children's literature I've read. It takes a particular sort of sensibility to look at children's literature with all the informed knowledge of a lifetime's reading of 'proper' books, and neither patronise (terribly good for a children's book) nor solemnly over-praise. Sam Leith hits the right spot again and again. The Haunted Wood is a marvel, and I hope it becomes a standard text for anyone interested in literature of any sort.' -Philip Pullman

Katabasis by R. F. Kuang

Graduate student Alice Law has only ever had one goal: to become the brightest mind in the field of analytic magick, but the only person who can make her dream come true is dead and - inconveniently - in Hell. Alice, along with her biggest rival Peter Murdoch, is going after him.

But Hell is not as the philosophers claim, its rules are upside-down, and if she's going to get out of there alive, she and Peter will have to work together. That's if they can agree on anything. Will they triumph, or kill each other trying?

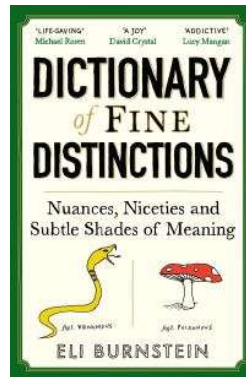

A distinguished book of fine distinctions which can save you from muddling a latte with a flat white. Life-saving!

Rosen's Almanac - Michael Rosen

This delightful book is a tribute to the genius of the human mind for conceptual precision and the beauty of the English language in capturing it

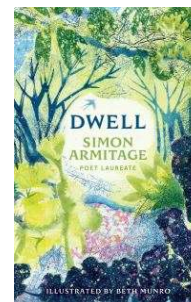

The Language Instinct - Steven Pinker

Our Book Club welcomed author Emma Woodhouse, her latest novel is set Bridgnorth

Mercy by Emma Woodhouse £12.99

Emma's enthusiasm for her story of Mercy and the notorious Newton family was infectious. Everyone who attended knew so much more about the period Mercy's history was set. Emma's notebook it was wonderful to be able to take a peek at the documents inside.

Emma has recently written "Victorian London's Most Notorious Female Gang Leader" for Pen and Sword to be published on 30th January 2026
