In September 1974 a young woman named Rosalind whose ambition was to read every book published. Realising that this was unrealistic decided to open a bookshop instead in which a carefully chosen stock would reflect both the knowledge gained from her interest in reading, and the interests of customer demands. The fascinating and often quite unpredictable bookshop was born. The bookshop's name is....

New Children's Edition

Raising Hare by Chloe Dalton illustrated by Denise Nestor

One winter's day, Chloe Dalton went for a countryside walk and discovered a newborn baby hare - no bigger than her hand - chased by a dog and separated from its mother.

Worried for its safety, Chloe took the tiny hare home and learned how to feed and care for it . . . and an extraordinary friendship began.

We have gorgeous stickers and activity sheets to complement this edition
